THE FOUNTAIN OF ETERNAL YOUTH

By Rabbi David Philipson

The belief in a spring, a draught of whose waters would miraculously free the drinker from the weaknesses and ills of old age and restore him to youth with its strength and power, was widely prevalent among primitive peoples, extending as it did from India in eastern Asia to the North American Indians.

The legend is popularly known in the United States because of the search for that spring by Ponce de Leon, the Spanish discoverer of the peninsula of Florida. The site of the spring which he so eagerly sought was supposed to be on the island of Bimini in the Bahama group.

It is needless to assert that this legend of a fountain whose waters conferred eternal youth belongs to the category of beliefs that characterize the myth period of human history. The literal acceptance of such legends is impossible to the advanced thought of today. Still there is a high truth in the idea which that ancient legend stresses. The ancient prophet of Israel indicated that truth when he declared that though youths should faint and grow weary and young men should utterly fail, yet they that wait upon the Lord would renew their strength.

What he meant, of course, was that faith in the eternities that pass not away, in right, justice and truth, is the never failing foundation of spiritual youth. In the material sense the senescent organs of the human body can not be rejuvenated, but in the spiritual sense youth is not dependent upon the number of years lived.

One of the very great of earth was designated "the eternal youth" when he was 80 years of age. A cheerful and contented spirit, an optimistic outlook upon life, a belief that the best is yet to be, purity of heart—these are the waters that perennially replenish the fountain of eternal youth.

They who quaff of these waters never grow old, however the bodily members may weaken with the passing of the years. In all truth it is the spirit that counts and those who remain young in spirit to the end of their earthly days constitute the eternal youth of mankind whether now three decades or eight constitute the span of earthly existence.

THE SERVICE OF THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS

American business wants the school to train its children according to their individual ability and wants the school to keep more closely in touch with the needs of business, according to Cameron Beck, personnel director of the New York stock Exchange, who spoke at the annual convention of the National Education association the other day.

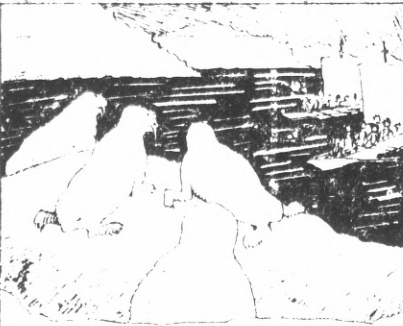

"Business men of America have an abiding appreciation of the public school system," Beck said, "our great business leaders of today are the product of our public school and we know that the service of the public schools has not been in vain."

"Schools should have more and better equipment for vocational training. In each community councils of business executives should be named to co-operate with the public schools and give advice on subjects that affect children after they go into the business world."

AMERICANS AND THEIR NAVY

The Navy League of the United States finds by examining press clippings that the ratio for the cruiser bill was 7.8 to 1. Newspapers with a circulation of 5,179,000 supported the navy bill and it was opposed by newspapers with a circulation of 665,000. The pacifist lobby of clerics, radicals, internationalists and anti-nationalists, was concentrated in Washington. The great mass of people did not agitate themselves. They took for granted that congress would keep the navy in condition.

OIL COMPANIES HIT IN GAS PRICE WAR

from an official of the Shell company of California. When retail prices dropped to 15 cents retail and large companies granted an additional two cents on the whole sale price to permit retailers a margin of six cents per gallon, he said.

Another Cent Granted
"Now," he continued, "another cent has been granted." He explained that service station proprietors could sell gasoline for 17 cents a gallon at present while paying only 10 cents a gallon to their sources of supply but instead they are selling for 11 cents.

Contrary to this point of view was the statement by P. H. Pat chin, assistant to the president of the Standard Oil company of California, who said:

"You tell me who started the World War and I'll tell you who started the gasoline price war."

The check by the United Press included the Standard and Shell companies, the General Petroleum corporation of California and the Richfield Oil company.

Settlement Vague
All expressed doubt that a settlement of the controversy would be reached soon but commented about "anything that might happen these days."

They seemed to agree too that the situation in this state would not affect eastern states. In this regard it was pointed out that prices are lower than usual in the east but they denied this was due to conditions here. Most of the gasoline consumed east of the Mississippi is from fields in the central part of the nation.

Losses Unknown
A general vagueness was encountered in response to a question as to the amount of losses. If any, the industry is suffering. The universal answer was that it was difficult to imagine anyone making a profit, particularly the retailers who sold for one cent more than they purchased.

"Some companies may be losing as much as $100,000 a day," a spokesman for the Shell company said. He said he could not be quoted directly because his opinions could not be considered definite.

The latest reduction was made Tuesday by the retail service station dealers of San Francisco. C. J. Kelly, president of the Garage and Property Owners association, which has been selling one cent under the retail dealers, declared his organization would not drop in price until after a meeting Thursday night at least.

RENEWAL OF WAR SEEN IN SOUTH
LOS ANGELES, March 13.—UP—As the retail gasoline price remained generally at 12-13 cents a gallon here tonight, some observers viewed the fall in the price cutting war as a sign that the fight soon would be renewed with a vigor that might carry it eastward.

Service station operators themselves, and not the oil companies were said to have been responsible for the slight boost during the present week.

While some stations had been selling at as low a price as 8 cents a gallon, the bottom price for the better known brands was 10 or 10 1/2 cents. Few stations were selling major companies gasoline at less than 12 cents tonight.

Contract Reductions
The wholesale price of gasoline, delivered to stations, was 12 1/2 cents, but dealers having contracts were given a three cent reduction, or a 9 1/2 cent rate. At 12 1/2 cents the stations re-

MEXICO REBELS PLAN NAGO ATTACK

NOGALES SONORA, March 13.—UP—More than 2000 rebels sold here were concentrated in Nogales and Del Rio tonight as Gen. Francisco Menzo, second in command of revolutionary forces, prepared to attack the town of Naco to the east.

Show and rain were falling as approximately 1000 soldiers brought here by train from Ortiz, Sonora, established their camp. The added force brought the troops in Nogales to more than 1500. It was reported that about 600 rebels had been moved into Del Rio.

RETREATING REBEL TROOPS ROUTED
LAREDO, Tex., March 13.—UP—Rebel forces retreating southward from Saltillo have been attacked by government troops and routed with a loss of 20 men killed and many more wounded. It was announced here today by Rafael De La Colina, Mexican consul.

The government forces also captured 300 rebel prisoners. La Colina said.

The engagement was fought for two hours at Encantada.

The rebels, the consul announced, captured two rebel military trains with a quantity of ammunition.

Reports reaching here today also said the rebels had captured 80 rebels in the occupation of Saltillo. The Almazan army occupying nine trains continued today to move westward toward Torreon.

Some of the advance guards were reported to be within 40 miles of Torreon. Mexican government officials predicted that the rebel army of Gen. Escobar would retire from Torreon into Chihuahua and that Torreon would be occupied without resistance.

Taggart Left $300,000 Estate
INDIANAPOLIS, March 13.—Thomas Taggart, democratic leader, who died last week, left an estate of $300,000, filing of his will revealed here today. The bulk of the huge fortune Taggart amassed from his hotel at French lick, Ind., was distributed ten years ago to his wife, sons and daughters.

He received a three cent profit as compared with a one cent margin at 10-12 cents. Prices declined from 21-13 cents a gallon with a four cent profit.

The gasoline companies admitted that the war was far from over. They repeated that the present condition was "economically un-sound" but could not say when prices profitable to them would return.

Three Cent Tax
The companies pointed out that from their 9 1/2 cent contract price they were forced to pay a three cent state tax.

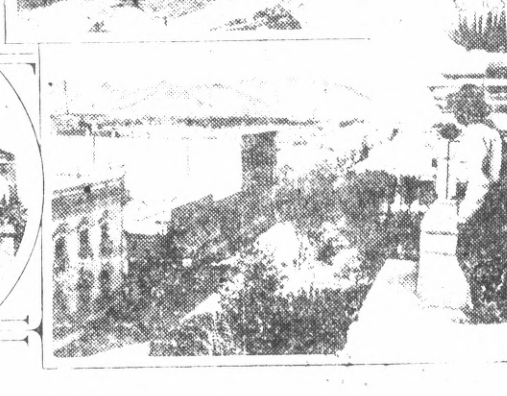

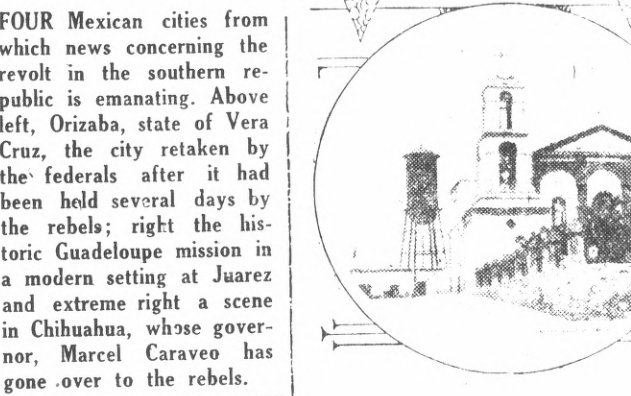

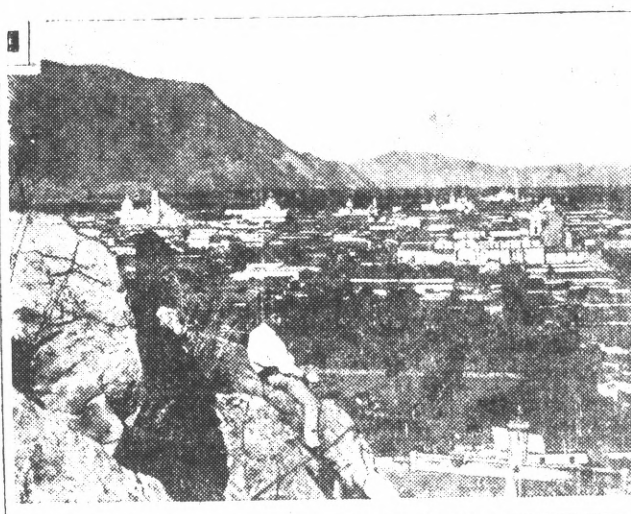

"Six and a half cents leaves no room for profit," one official said. "Just how much of a loss is being suffered at the price is hard to say as it varies under certain conditions."

In some circles it was felt that unable to fight the price war to a finish on the Pacific coast the battle would be carried eastward.

Such a step might prove disastrous as companies with fields in other regions could supply gasoline more cheaply than companies which would have to rely on California fields.

FEDERAL ARMY LOSES NEAR TORREON

NOGALES, ARIZ., March 13.—UP—Revolutionary headquarters at Nogales, Sonora, today said that rebel forces had been victorious in what might be the first skirmish of the long expected battle at Torreon.

The rebel forces had some against a small group from the army of Gen. Plutarco Calles and the rebels were directed by Gen. Gonzalo Escobar.

A bulletin announced that the federal group had been put to flight. In the encounter several men were killed and wounded and a number of federal weapons were taken prisoners, it was said.

The federal force was said to have consisted of the 76th and 77th regiments of infantry, under the command of Gen. Francisco Torres, which had branched off from the main Calles column north of Zacatecas City.

The bulletin claimed that after being defeated by insurgent cavalry led by Gen. Valdez Ybarra the federalists retired in the general direction of Cuernavaca, state of Conchagua.

The skirmish was taken here as a sign that the Calles and Escobar columns would soon open their anticipated battle.

20 Dead In Chinese Fire
NAKING, CHINA, March 13.—UP—Twenty persons were killed scores injured and hundreds homeless as a result of a fire that destroyed seven hundred huts here today.

The spectacular fire started at Paochow bridge from the incense burner was seen burned as a tribute to Sun Yat Sen and spread to the nearby huts before it could be controlled.

The anniversary of the death of Sun Yat Sen founder of the Chinese republic and known as the "George Washington of China" is being commemorated throughout China.

Bay Rum Dealers In Price Raise

SAN FRANCISCO, March 13.—UP—An increase of $5 a case on Bay Rum by large dealers in the San Francisco region, announced a week ago, was reflected tonight in a raise by "Retail boot leggers."

Apartment renter who sell drinks had generally increased the price from 25 cents to 35 cents a drink, three for a dollar and had abandoned "treats." Many had even regular customers a free drink after every third and sometimes second drink purchased.

The general excuse for increased prices was fear of conviction under the new Jones bill, which increased penalties for violation of the Eighteenth amendment to a fine of $10,000 or five years imprisonment.

struggle for their proposals when the farm relief bill reaches the house and senate floors.

For Asked
Delegates will again bring forward the qualification fee provision of the McNary-Haugen bill, according to Senator Harrison, during March. He has promised that the minority party will make the bill to reform the campaign process of Alfred E. Smith to lead to the qualification fee principle surplus disposal by the government with consequent loss charged to the farmers is admitted.

However obviously cannot approve the qualification fee. Former President Coolidge vetoed the McNary-Haugen bill twice because this provision was included and his successor is pledged to carry on Coolidge policies. It seems apparent that the democratic fight therefore can produce little more than a sham battle.

Senator Borah, Rep. J. A. Willard, another minority fight for what is known as the cost of production principle. He will try to insert in the farm bill a provision authorizing the government to compute the average cost of production for each farm product and bid that cost, plus a fair profit, for the farmers' surplus crops. This would automatically raise the price of all farm products to the government level.

CAPITAL CITY CREW MEETS U. C. FROSH

BERKELEY, March 13.—The University of California may receive a licking in their first crew race of 1928, if reports from Sacramento Junior college are proven true in the regatta Saturday morning on the Oakland estuary. The capital city crew will row a mile and a half race against the California first freshman boat, and on the basis of comparative time, need take no back seat to the Bears.

The Daywood brothers, Ken and Don, who are senior California rowers and coaches at Sacramento, have turned out a first eight that weighs about 400 pounds and an eighth in 6 minutes 10 seconds on the river course. On the basis of a mile this gives the Sacramento a record of about 5:25 to compare with the 5:22 for the California freshmen.

The junior college crew is made up of unusually tall men, a notable physical characteristic in rowing. The Sacramento averages four and a half feet in height, and 170 and a quarter pounds in weight. These facts are considered by the first freshman and junior college crews.

Plans are being considered for Saturday afternoon for the Sacramento crew to race the second freshman boat. It is also possible that one of the junior varsity shells may be entered in the race with the first freshman and junior college crews.

SIX ARRESTS IN RAID ON BIG STILL

MARTINEZ, March 13.—Six men were arrested and a large still was seized, together with 100 gallons of whiskey and 15,000 gallons of mash in a raid led by Under-Sheriff William Vail on the Arthur Peterson ranch near Lafayette last night.

Those arrested were: Arthur Peterson, 66, owner of the ranch; Joseph Ranzoni, 40, alleged operator of the still;

Joseph Ranzoni, 40, an employee; Frank Morris, 40, cook; and alleged "lookout";

Frank Palamini, 25, a truck driver; Frank Damonte, 25, a truck driver.

The first four were taken into custody on the night of the raid. Two were arrested at the ranch early today when they arrived with supplies. Palamini carried a truck load of canisters. Damonte was delivering a truck load of sugar, arresting officers declared.

The still of the Peterson ranch, together with the whiskey and mash, were found in a warehouse across a creek from the ranchhouse. The doors were locked from the inside and a trapdoor was found leading from the barn into a hidden place. An electric device that would permit a person to sound a warning in the barn was also found.

The arresting officers swooped down upon the ranch so quickly that no one had a chance to escape.

Peterson claimed he had leased the place and knew nothing of the still or its operators.

Plane Makes Back Yard Call

LANDING in lot which he said looked a little larger than his hat, Pilot Sam Taylor brought this giant tri-motored plane to rest in backyard of Cleveland, O., home. Twelve passengers, including baby and three children escaped unharmed.

BIBLE, MOVIE MAN DEAD IN CRASH

record of 231.36 miles an hour set by Major H. O. D. Segrave earlier this week.

Bible was completing his second official test when the accident occurred.

133 Miles An Hour

He had set down the airplane on a hard white beach at a rate of 133.11 miles an hour in the Triplex, which Ray Keech drove to a record of 267 miles an hour last year. At the end of the first mile Bible grunted through the plane which covered his face.

"It looks like a good day for the record," he said after his machine had been refused.

Then with a wave of his hand he started back north.

In front of the grand stand the black Triplex, powered with 33 cylinders in three Liberty motors, was clocked at 267.7 miles an hour. It rose on for about 200 yards, veering dangerously toward the outer edge which leads into the Atlantic.

Car Skids

There was a hiss and startled onlookers saw the Triplex turn suddenly, skid, then turn over and strike the sand dune on which two photographers had been taking pictures. One of the cameramen jumped to safety but Bible was caught and his body severed.

Attendants ran to the machine and pulled Bible's body from the big machine just before it caught fire.

The accident today brought cancellation of any further speed tests over the Daytona Beach course. Segrave announced he would not race his machine in America again this year.

Val Hartsnappe, secretary of the A. A. A., said that out of deference to Bible there would be no further tests, while Mayor Armstrong of Daytona Beach said that the race course would be closed for the year.

Major H. O. D. Segrave, who earlier this week had set his Golden Arrow racing along the same path at 231.36 miles per hour, witnessed the accident. He previously had admitted he was talking about the danger in the super-speed attempts. He even had admitted he had one chance in a hundred of getting out safely.

Seagrave Shaken

But when he watched the big black Triplex, sometimes called White's "piece of junk" because it is assembled from so many varied machines, turn over, he shuddered.

"It is regrettably very regrettable," he said.

Bible had done some racing in nondescript motor cars at county fairs in Arkansas, Indiana, Michigan and other middle western states.

But after he married and had a family he was survived by two children, he put the thrill of racing motors behind him and settled down to his profession of mechanic, buying a garage in Daytona Beach. Many times he watched the packings tune up their powerful machine along the white runway here.

First Big Race

Last year J. M. White brought the Triplex here with Ray Keech as driver. Bible was hired to aid in tuning up the machine.

This year White brought his racing machine down here without a driver. Bible again was hired to tune it up and White said that Bible deserved "his chance" as driver of the powerful machine. Yesterday he made his first official run, traveling at an average of about 180 miles an hour.

Today's was the second major accident in the past two years in the attempt to establish a new speed record for the mile straight away. Last year Frank Lockhart, popular young American race driver, was killed when his machine overturned.

Troops May Be Called In Strike

ELIZABETHTON, Tenn., Mar. 13.—EP While more than a thousand women milled through the streets here tonight shouting demands for a living wage and defying the forces of the law, Gov. Henry Horton, of Tennessee, took steps to check the spread of violence in the strike of Elizabethton rayon workers.

The governor announced that he had sent Capt. Alexander of the Tennessee national guard to Elizabethton to report on the situation.

Guardmen will be sent here Thursday if Captain Alexander deems it necessary he indicated.

The strikers, all employed at the Rayon plant of the American Glanzstoff corporation, numbered 2000 tonight, including 1400 women. They are demanding a 25 percent increase in wages.

CHAMBER WILL AID BARRIER FIGHT

Whole hearted support of the move to construct a salt water barrier in the upper bay was given by the Richmond Chamber of Commerce at the meeting of the directors when the importance of the project was outlined by Ralph Bergen, one of the chamber directors. Bergen attended a recent meeting at Martinez where the Bay Barrier association was organized with E. M. Downer as a vice president, representing Richmond.

Bergen declared that the project is of the utmost importance even to communities like Richmond which would be below the proposed barrier, inasmuch as the barrier would create a huge fresh water lake in Suisun bay and vicinity, from which the whole bay shore could draw an inexhaustible supply of cheap water for industrial purposes.

T. M. Carlson, city attorney of Richmond was empowered to represent the newly formed association at Sacramento where it is hoped to see the plan crystallized into official action leading to a statewide bond issue to finance the construction.

Fifteen or twenty years ago salt water reached only into the lower part of the delta region," said Bergen. "Now it goes as high as Stockton and is on the point of ruining the entire delta agricultural country. The proposed salt water barrier would be erected at Dillon Point at an estimated cost of $49,000,000. It is the only known method by which the delta region can be saved from the encroachments of salt water and by which the manufacturing interests of the bay shore can procure a cheap supply of fresh water for their purposes."

The chamber directors voted $250 to aid the association in its fight for the barrier, and Bergen was appointed to report on recent developments before the city council at the meeting next Monday night.

SUSPECT HELD IN GAS PIPE MURDER

MARTINEZ, March 13.—W. N. Short, 35, steel worker of Pittsburg, died here today, the victim of a "gas pipe" thug.

Short was found unconscious in a vacant city lot Saturday night. Near him lay a piece of blood-stained gas pipe which the police believe was used to render him unconscious.

No motive for the murder has been advanced. Money carried by the man had not been taken.

In Pittsburg authorities there are holding A. C. Rangel, a recent arrival in that city for questioning in connection with the murder of Short.

Police declare that Rangel's descriptions correspond with those of Frank Simpson, implicated in the robbery of the Bessie state bank in Oklahoma in July, 1928.

According to the police, a cut on Rangel's right hand and other characteristics correspond to the description of Simpson sent out by Oklahoma authorities.

Annual Dinner Of Y. M. C. A. To Be Held Monday

Final plans for the annual dinner of the Richmond Y. M. C. A. to be held Monday night in the association hall on Thirteenth street near Macdonald avenue have been arranged. Members of the association and their wives have been invited to attend the session which will start at 6:30 o'clock.

BOULDER DAM LECTURE AT HALL HERE

Free vaudeville and pictures to accompany lecture, an illustrated lecture on the great Boulder Dam project, one of the most stupendous engineering feats of modern times, will be delivered by M. Lowal, a nationally prominent engineer, at Memorial hall at Twelfth and Macdonald avenue, Friday at 8 p. m.

The lecture, free to the public, will be illustrated by moving pictures of California developments, taken recently from a specially chartered airplane, which made the trip from Los Angeles to the site of the dam. It stopped long enough to take many interesting pictures of the marvelous Chemehuevis Valley, located near the site of the Boulder Dam. The pictures, shown before many audiences throughout California, have been received with the greatest enthusiasm and the lecture has given much enjoyment and valuable information to those who were privileged to hear this interesting message. Besides, high class and varied vaudeville entertainment has been arranged, including the showing of several reels of pictures and the appearance of well known artists. The public is cordially invited, and there will be no admission charge. It is hoped that many persons will attend next Friday evening.

Planes To Meet U. S. Line Ships

NEW YORK, March 13.—UP—A week from Europe to San Francisco will soon be a fact, according to plans announced today by the new owners of the United States line to inaugurate a service allowing incoming passengers to make non stop flights to their homes.

Twenty large airplanes are to be put in service to meet the U. S. line ships by Skyline, Incorporated, organized by Paul W. Chapman. Chapman recently paid the government $16,000,000 for the eleven passenger vessels of the U. S. line, and the American Merchant lines. The concern hopes to have the planes in operation by autumn.
